

Wanless Park Tennis Club (WPTC) in Toronto is looking to hire Certified Tennis Instructors and Club Pro 1s for the FALL of 2022.

About the Club: WPTC is a five court, City of Toronto, permitted community tennis club.

Wanless Park Tennis Club is a family-oriented club whose mission is to provide tennis facilities for our members in a friendly, welcoming environment. We also strive to promote the growth of tennis by providing tennis instruction to junior and adult members, and to run organized activities designed to accommodate all levels of tennis players within the community. We have been active in the Yonge and Lawrence area for over 60 years and have a very large active membership.

WPTC is located between Mount Pleasant Road and Bayview Avenue just north of Lawrence Avenue East a short walk to the Lawrence subway station situated in a beautiful five-acre park.

Job Description: The Instructors will be available for the 2022 fall outdoor tennis season and will report to the Head Tennis Professional for the season beginning in September and ending in early November. The ideal candidates will have an important role within the coaching team and should embody a passion for tennis, work well within a team environment as well as have the ability to work independently, have a strong work ethic with a flexible schedule to coach weekday afternoons and weekends, good communication/interpersonal skills with all age groups, ability to follow instructions, shows a desire and ability to improve the coaching standards and a track record of having a positive effect on members' lives. Preference will be given to those with experience and aptitude, coaching female players.

Our immediate need is for instructors to work from 4 – 6 pm Sundays to Thursdays from September 5 to October 28, 2022. This would also be an audition for additional work in the 2023 season. Private lessons to members are also available.
